At Boys Hostel, we join various hostel clubs, Mentor Classes, which in an innovative way of exploring hidden talents, implementing new ideas, developing hobbies as well as brushing minds. I am grateful to chief warden for building & maintaining healthy and fantastic atmosphere at hostel.

Rishav Baruahme, (IV Year, ME, PGI)

"My confidence spells the result in my personality. I can assure that PGC is the only group in Jaipur that takes so much pain for the development of communication techniques of the students, which includes a wide range of activities, guest lectures and workshops."

Divya Saxena, (II Year, MBA)

It feels great when our college makes every effort to keep in touch with us, even after passing out. It's amazing to see how every student passing out is individually cared by Poornima. Hats off to my faculties and my Lovely College for making each one of us always feel a special part of Poornima.

Pragya Mathur, (Placed in Infosys)

HEAR THEM SPEAK

"In engineering picnic means industrial visits Believe me, they were never less than a picnic. Visits to book fairs, industries, plants were always educative but filled with fun. After all, you can enjoy anywhere and everywhere with friends around."

Vartika Dhupar, (IV Year, CS, PCE)

"Events like Department Day, Kalanidhi, Hostel Day, Aarohan etc. provide immense exposure and opportunity to learn management skills. I always actively participated in them."

Nitin Sharma, (IV Year, EE, PCE)

To develop a sense of responsibility in young technocrats towards the nation, our college provides opportunities to participate in social activities. I would like to thank the management of Poornima for taking us out on such a soul stirring visit which developed a feeling to serve our nation.

Nitish Kumar Pareek, (IV Year, EC, PIET)

"My tutor is my friend, philosopher and guide. Every student here has a faculty tutor who gives individual attention to the various problems of the students under their charge. Tutors here are so friendly that students in no time develops a sense of belonging to them."

Anita Meena, (IV Year, Civil, PGI)

"As I am from Hindi medium background, I was not able to match the level of competition due to my communication skills. In Poornima, I found P-PROSKEP as my backbone. Experiments by students are always motivated by the faculty members here for creative output."

Mahepal Plawa, (IV Year, IT, PIET)

Life at Poornima was rocking, enjoyed every moment, and celebrated each & every festival with great enthusiasm, had fun & last but not the least vibrant studies during exams. When in college there was strong dislike for the strict discipline, practiced there. Today, I realize how systematic my life has become due to it.

Vishnu Dev, (Placed in Indian Army)

I appreciate the Infrastructure and Facilities provided at Poornima Group of Colleges. This is excellent place for learning, building confidence and exposure to creativity & art.

Mr. Yatindra Mishra
Prince of Ayodhya

My daughter got admission in Poornima and has undergone tremendous positive change in attitude and behaviour. We have heard about the reputation of college and with the development implanted in our daughter, I undoubtedly can say it holds to its standard. Facilities like Online Examination, Library, Labs, Infrastructure and Regular Assessment are worth praising.

Ms. Veena Vanjani
Mother of Jigisha Vanjani, II Year, Civil
